Thirteenth Volume! Great Increased Interest!

THE New York Christian Observer enters upon its Thirteenth Volume on the 18th of November, ensuing. Extensive improvements are in contemplation on the new volume, both as to its matter and appearance, by securing increased talent to its columns, and putting it on new type, throughout.

For its general standing and character, reference may be had to its persevering efforts in the cause of Universalfor the last twelve years. As in the past, so in the future, no efforts will be nal of Religion, Literature and Intelliversalist, or for the Inquirer after the truth of the doctrine, and even for the candid opposer, who is disposed to examine both sides of the question. In all its course it aims to be guided by the law of kindness and love, and to say to those who cannot unite with it in sentiment, "come now and let us reason to-

9. The Association shall adopt rules of decorum to be observed in the transacting of business, which may be amended at any session by a majority of the members present.

10. At every session of the Association, a Moderator shall be appointed from the delegates present, whose duty it shall be to see that the rules are strictly observed, and to take the voice of the Association on all subjects legally introduced.

10. A Clerk shall be appointed annually, whose duty it shall be to take proper and correct minutes of the proceedings, and keep a regular file of the printed minutes of every session of this body.

12. I he funds of this Association, shall be furnished by voluntary contributions; which funds shall be invariably appropriated according to the direction of the donor or donors; and giving or withholding shall never be a bar of fellowship, among the Churches of this Association.

13. A committee on Finance shall be appointed annually, whose duty it shall be to receive in charge, all monies sent up to the Association, and dispose of the same as ordered by the Association, and make at every session a fair report of their proceedings.

14. This Association shall furnish the churches with the Minutes of every session of this body.

15. The Association shall not adjourn until she shall have finished all the business on hand, except in extraordinary

16. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if necessary, before the session rises, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk.

17. Amendments to this Constitution may be made at any session by a majority of two thirds of the members present; provided the same be recommended for consideration by a ma-jority of the members present at the preceding session.

APPENDIX. 1. In order to be consistent and uniform in our practice of church discipline, we recommend the following things as necessary to be observed; 2. If a serious difficulty should exist in an individual church, which she by due labor cannot reconcile, she should try to get a respectable committee of helps from sister churches, to whom the matter should be submitted for final decision: if however, the decision should be grievous, and in the opinion both of the church and the helps, it might give more general satisfaction to take it to the Association, then, let it be taken there, but not otherwise.

3. In ordaining ministers, churches should know that they have the approbation of sister churches; and all presbyteries in ordaining ministers and deacons, and in constituting churches, should be governed by the abstract of faith adopted by the Association.

4. As we wish as far as practicable to supercede the necessity of other benevolent societies; and believing that the Churches are the most suitable societies for carrying forward the means of extending the Redeemers Kingdom:

Resolved, therefore, That we recommend the churches of this Association, so far as they may feel it to be their duty, to aid in sustaining the home or foreign mission Bible Society or any other benevolent object of a public nature, that they their contributions to the Association, to be appropriated according to the direction of the churches which send it.

ABSTRACT OF FAITH. 1. We believe in one, only true and living God; the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God, and the only proper rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of original sin. corruption ; of human nature; and that man is morally unable to recover himself from the fallen state which he is in by nature, by his own will and ability

4. We believe in the doctrine of election, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the Blood of Jesus Christ; and that God chose his people in Christ before the foundation of the world—that they should be holy, and without blame before him in love, not for foreseen good in them, or done by them, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given them in Christ Jesus, before the world began.

5. We believe that the elect shall be called, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God, alone by the imputation of Christ's righteousness, which is unto all, and upon all them that believe. 7. We believe in the doctrine of the final perseverance of the Saints through grace.

8. We believe that Baptism, and the Lord's Supper "are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that immersion is the only gospel Baptism; and that spenitent believers are the on'y 9. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, a general judgment, and that the joys of the righteous, and the pusishment of the wicked, will be eternal 10. We believe that no man can properly officiate as Minister of the Gospel, unless he be scripturally baptized upon a profession of his faith, by a qualified administrator called of God to the great work-recognized as such by the church of which he is a member-examined by a Presbytery and set apart by prayer and the imposition of hands, according to the Gospel. 11. We believe that none but regularly baptized believers have a right to commune at the Lord's table

12. We believe that the design and fruits of God's elect-ART. 1. This Association shall be composed of members ing love and regenerating grace, was, and now is, that his people should be holy, and without blame before him in love. 13. We believe that it is enjoined upon the Ministry to preach the Gospel to every croature-to teach all mations.
